

Henry S. Bryans

Harry is a Senior Vice President with Aon Risk Services Northeast, Inc., where he specializes in risk management issues for law firms. Prior to joining Aon, he was a partner in the Philadelphia law firm of Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP for over twenty-five years. His practice at Drinker Biddle focused on a wide variety of matters under federal and state securities and banking laws, mergers and acquisitions, and general corporate representation of public and private companies. He also served for ten years as general counsel to his firm.

Harry is a graduate of Yale University (B.A., 1968) and the University of Pennsylvania Law School (J.D., magna cum laude, 1971). He served as law clerk for the late Hon. Henry J. Friendly, then Chief Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. He is a member of the American and Pennsylvania Bar Associations and a life member of the American Law Institute. He has appeared on many continuing legal education panels on corporate and securities matters and mergers and acquisitions. Harry has also spoken frequently in programs on professional responsibility and risk management. He currently serves as Co-Chair of the Pennsylvania Bar Association's Title 15 Task Force which reviews, and makes recommendations with respect to, proposed amendments to Pennsylvania's business entity laws.
