

Heinzerling bio

Lisa Heinzerling is Senior Climate Policy Counsel to EPA Administrator Lisa P. Jackson. She is currently on a leave of absence from her position as Professor of Law at the Georgetown University Law Center. She received an A.B. from Princeton University and a J.D. from the University of Chicago Law School, where she was editor-in-chief of the Law Review. She clerked for Judge Richard A. Posner on the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit and for Justice William J. Brennan, Jr. on the United States Supreme Court. She served for three years as an assistant attorney general in Massachusetts, specializing in environmental law. She has been a visiting professor at the Yale and Harvard law schools. She is the co-author of several books, including, with Frank Ackerman, Priceless: On Knowing the Price of Everything and the Value of Nothing (The New Press 2004). She was the lead author of petitioners' successful briefs in Massachusetts v. EPA, in which the Supreme Court held that EPA has the authority to regulate greenhouse gases under the Clean Air Act.
